

BROLO DEI POETI 2010 - AMARONE CLASSICO RISERVA DOC

Brolo dei Poeti is produced only in exceptional vintages with ideal climatic conditions. Harvest begins at dawn, with the finest grape clusters carefully selected from the higher elevations of the brolo walled vineyards at the estate in Arbizzano di Negrar. A secondary selection takes place in the winery before the grapes enter their resting phase. Drawing on knowledge gained from numerous harvests, the delicate appassimento process—where the grapes are dried—is meticulously monitored daily. This critical stage is key to developing a wine of remarkable character. Extended maceration and minimal intervention during fermentation help to preserve the aromatic qualities of this Riserva Amarone. After fourteen years in large oak barrels, the aging process continues for an additional year in the bottle.

Ruby red with garnet hues, the wine offers a complex, intense aromatic profile, opening with balsamic and almost iodine-like notes. Ripe red fruit follows, alongside hints of citrus and spices such as star anise, cardamom and ginger, enriched by notes of cocoa, chocolate, tar, almond and pipe tobacco. The palate is full, warming and supple, with velvety tannins and a balance sustained by pronounced freshness and a savoury character. Ready to enjoy now, it also has the structure to develop further with age.
